Dear Mr. Melson,

This letter is a long time coming. Thank you so much for your outstanding support of the KlaasKids Foundation. Your expertise has helped our small non-profit organization in the recovery of our clients for many years now. You provide assets that we would not otherwise have access to, therefore you are integral in our ongoing success.

Under the leadership of Brad Dennis, the KlaasKids Foundation has consolidated our goal of stopping crimes against children with a unique focus on the search and recovery of missing persons and rescue of human trafficking victims. We believe that in the current environment this is the best way we can serve our clients and be true to our mission.

Our unique collaboration further demonstrates how, by linking arms and pursuing common goals, we can achieve results that are beyond our individual abilities. Alone, none of us has the power to effect profound change, but by linking arms and working toward common goals, together we can change the world.

Thank you for your continued support. Remember, your donation to the KlaasKids Foundation is tax deductible.

Sincerely,

Marc Klaas
